MOST PROMINENT CITIZENS. With the above named new members the board has now about fifty of Man-chester's most prominent citizens as mem-bers, and as the Canvassing Committee's president was instructed to appoint a committee of three to draft suitable constitution and by-laws for the board and to consider the advisability of changing the name of the organization to the "Bus iness Men's Association of Manchester, Va." Said committee is to report at next company or organization so that board would have capital enough to parties wishing to locate here, and at the next meeting this will be decided upon finally. On motion, the board adjourned to meet on Thursday, May 4th, 1859, at 4 eclock P. M., at Toney's Hall.
